GOOD-BAD NEWS this week

about a few of our folks.
It was rumored Wednesday that Joe Dagna, who's really just a kid, had suffered a coronary or a stroke. Well, it wasn't all that serious according to his wife, Jean. He had something far less serious, was in Albany hospital from Wednesday until Friday morning and, although he's going to take it easier for a while, he returned to Dagna's Market Monday.

Friends of Mrs. Bob (Jean) Petersen of the Ellis-Olson mortuary staff have been worried for weeks about her upcoming open heart surgery. It was performed at Palo Alto-Stanford hospital last Thursday by Dr. Norman Shumway of heart transplant fame. At this writing, Jean is doing as well as can be expected. She had a tumor in her heart, which has afflicted only 20 persons in the entire history of medicine.

Esther and Lester Springer of Pierce Street set off on vacation a few weeks ago in a spanking new Ford. Today the car is a total wreck and the Springers, after hospitalization in Klamath Falls, Ore., are recuperating at their home. Lester is an Albany mailman. Esther is office nurse for Dr. Victor Stallone.

R. E. ATKINSON of 1052 Santa Fe wonders how effective our police force is because the Richmond station across from the station has been robbed so many times. We're afraid he wouldn't feel very secure up on Santa Fe if he knew the one or two policemen responsible for patrolling the entire city at any given time were hanging around the station watching property across the street.

LLOYD HOGAN, 42-YEAR RESIDENT, IS DEAD

Lloyd Hogan, 72, who had lived at 1558 Sonoma Ave. for 42 years, died of an apparent heart attack Saturday while sawing picnic firewood as a volunteer in Tilden Park.

Private family services were held at Ellis-Olson mortuary Monday afternoon with Dr. Fred Stripp officiating.

Mr. Hogan, who retired in 1956 after 30 years as deputy U.S. customs collector in Oakland, was one of the moving spirits behind the formation of the East Bay Regional Parks.

As a regional parks enthusiast, he has been described as a primary force in the citizens' drive which led to the formation of the parks district in 1934. After working as a campaigner and petition canvasser during the drive,

NOTICE

Aug. 15 is the last day for open burning of grass and weeds in Albany as permitted by a Smog Control agreement, according to Fire Prevention Officer Richard McSheehy.

Ross Reed Cheney Is 96 Sunday

Ross Reed Cheney celebrated his 96th birthday Sunday, Aug. 4, with a birthday dinner at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Arnold Pope, visit to the Albany Senior Center and a ride in an automobile.

This is the first birthday Mr. Cheney has celebrated living away from home. He is at Carlson Convalescent Hospital in El Cerrito and appreciates visits from his friends.

1968 has been a busy year for Mr. Cheney's family. His daughter, Frances Cheney Losier retired from teaching music in the adult schools of Richmond and Berkeley; his great-grandson, Reed Pope, graduated with honors from Albany High school receiving two scholarships, and will be attending UC in September; his brother, 81, who lived at the Elks club in Berkeley, had to move to a convalescent hospital there, and Albany's Mr. Cheney moved to the convalescent hospital.

he became an enthusiastic volunteer, especially in Tilden Park. He averaged two days a week, cutting free picnic firewood, painting and doing odd jobs.

Mr. Hogan, who held an honorary park ranger's badge, was recently honored for his outstanding service with a plaque presented at Serb's at a banquet given by the park's rangers.

He was past president of the Berkeley Hiking club, former member of the board of the Contra Costa Hills club, Honorary Life Member of Albany PTAS, member of the Berkeley Girl Scouts' Day camp committee and the Thousand Oaks Masonic lodge of Berkeley.

Long after their daughter, Mrs. George Pantell of Carmichael, was out of Albany schools, Mr. Hogan and his wife, Christine, maintained a plant table at the Marin PTA carnival and worked with Girl Scouts during the annual Folk Dance Festival. Both have been active in Republican politics.

A native of Charloix, Mich., Mr. Hogan was a disabled veteran of World War I. He was wounded while serving in France.

In addition to his wife and daughter, he is survived by four grandchildren.

Contributions in his memory may be directed to the Lloyd Hogan Memorial Exhibit Fund in care of the park district. The fund is to be used for constructing nature displays in Tilden Park's planned Interpretive Center.

Capt. Brennan Appointed AFD Drillmaster

Albany Fire Chief Gerald D. Browne has announced the appointment of Capt. Thomas Brennan to the position of drillmaster in the department. Captain Brennan will administer to the coordination of education between the various fire department shifts.

Today, with the diversity of duties realized by the fire service, education performs a role of tremendous importance in furnishing protection to the citizen. In Albany, training has expanded rapidly making it necessary to supplement the practical training with theoretical and educational practices. This has been especially necessary in regards to chemistry and hydraulics which are currently extending due to progress and invention.

Captain Brennan will develop a comprehensive training program to fill any gaps between the educational training and the procedure guides. He will prepare a Fire Science Program that will eventually culminate into covering all phases of specialized knowledge considered necessary for efficient fire department practices.

The captain will assume these duties along with his regular responsibility as a shift officer.

Albany Baha'is Plan Series Of Meetings

A countywide declaration and exposition of the principles of the Baha'i faith will be hosted by the Baha'i community of Albany.

This Sunday, Aug. 11, the start of Baha'i Week in Albany, a public meeting will take place at 2 p.m. in Albany hall, 985 Kains, to begin the two-week period of public proclamation.

Maurice Willows will be the key note speaker for the meeting. Mr. Willows, world traveler and noted Baha'i teacher, has been associated with the American Museum of Natural Sciences, the Academy of Sciences, San Francisco, and has spent some seven years in scientific expeditions to Central America and the South Pacific. A Lt. Commander in the Naval Reserve, he lives in Los Angeles.

Herbert Baler of 807 Solano, chairman of the Baha'i Assembly of Albany, pointed out that "the purpose of scheduled events during this two-week period is to present to all who care to hear, what we believe to be God's latest message of universal love, world brotherhood and justice for the modern era. We enjoin all citizens in the area to avail themselves of this opportunity to investigate this belief for themselves."

Open house discussion groups are scheduled to follow the main Sunday meeting at 1012 9th St., Wednesday at 8 p.m.; 839 Madison, Friday, and 807 Solano, Wednesday, Aug. 21, at 8 p.m. To close the proclamation period, a community picnic is planned for Aug. 25.

Another Move on School Tax

Council Approves $1.5 Million Budget; Drops Rate 5 Cents

Albany City Council Monday night approved a $1,543,888 budget, up 12 per cent over last fiscal year, and dropped the tax rate by five cents to a city tax of $1.69 per $100 assessed valuation.

It also hurriedly voted 3-2 to ask the County Board of Supervisors to consolidate on the November ballot a local measure which would remove from city taxes the 35 cents the city must by Charter collect for the Albany schools.

Both Councilmen Lewis Howell and George Hein objected to the action, but Mayor Richard Clark and Councilmen H. F. Call and

Budget Next Week

The complete City of Albany budget for 1968-69 will be published in the Times next week.

Publication of the budget in its entirety has become a tradition with Albany City Council, who have been praised in many quarters for informing taxpayers where their tax dollars go.

Joe Carlevaro insisted the people have a right to decide. Another factor spurring the action was City Attorney Larry Saler's announcement that yesterday was the final day to request consolidation on the General Election ballot.

The two-hour meeting included action and discussion on many important matters, including the public hearing on undergrounding of utilities on Solano Avenue. Following a half-hour hearing, Council voted to prepare the necessary ordinance setting Dec. 1, 1969, as the completion date for the first phase, from Jackson to Masonic, and setting Aug. 19 as the date to determine completion of phase II, which includes Solano from Masonic to the eastern boundary of Albany.

One ordinance and five resolutions pertaining to the budget were unanimously passed. They granted disability pay to non-uniformed employees up to one year, putting them on the same basis as uniformed employees; adopted the tax rate and budget, determined salaries of all employees and officers of the city, fixed transportation and car allowances, provided for payment of $8,000 to the Chamber of Commerce, and set the incentive salary program for the police and fire departments.

In discussing the budget, Mayor Clark described it as "a good one—one we can work with." He said funds have been set aside to reorganize the City Clerk's position and create the office of Finance Director in the hope of establishing long-needed checks and balances and to set up a new accounting system.

Clark paid tribute to the Fire Department and Police Department, noting that some of their requests have been granted in the hope the departments will continue to do as well as, if not better than, in the past. He said an extra man was added to the Police Department.

Emphasis has been on the Parks and Recreation department this year, the mayor said. Everything has been done to give the most efficient services without burdening the taxpayers, he said, noting that only 33 per cent of the total budget is financed by property owners. Other sources include sales tax (about 25 per cent) (Continued on Page 3)

LONE ALBANY POLICEMAN CAPTURES THREE MEN

Albany Police Sgt. Mel Boyd held three suspected robbers at shotgun point after a chase into Berkeley last Thursday as a crowd of about 50-75 people jeered.

Sgt. Jim McLeod appeared on the scene moment later and the two Albany policemen were soon joined by several units from Berkeley police. A search of the car revealed a loaded revolver with cocked hammer under the front seat and a brown paper bag containing $975.15 under some clothing on the floor of the rear seat.

The three men were taken to Albany Police Department and later released to Richmond police, who wanted them in connection with the robbery of a grocery store a few minutes before the chase began.

Sergeant Boyd heard a description of the wanted vehicle, entered the freeway southbound at Buchanan and spotted the car heading south. He followed it as it raced along, jumping lanes. At Gilman, he radioed the Albany station asking for help and to alert Berkeley police.

The car left the freeway at University, again moving around slower traffic and changing lanes, but not exceeding the speed limit. It turned in at the Co-Op at 1414 University Ave., and stopped in the parking lot. Boyd told those in the front seat to place their hands on the windshield and the man in the rear to put his hands on the back of the front seat. As the gathering crowd made unpleasant comments, he waited for help.

When Sergeant McLeod arrived, Boyd exclaimed, "You look like Santa Claus!"

The men arrested were Duane Fuller, 19, of Berkeley; Burt Maynard-Ray, 19, of Oakland, and Ralph Edward Moore, 18, Los Angeles.

Sgt. and Mrs. Jim Cressio (she's the former Irene Silverter) are the parents of their first child, a girl, Christine Marie, born July 29 at Merritt hospital. The proud father, who was here for the big event, is in military intelligence school in Maryland. Irene and her baby are at home with her parents, the Mike Silvesters of 321 Cornell Ave.

Good News!

School Tax Rate May Be Down 35¢; City, 5¢

Although the Board of Education was meeting last night as the presses were rolling, the agenda for the meeting indicated that at its annual budget session it would consider reducing taxes by 27 cents and, because of higher assessed valuation, there could be a reduction of eight cents in the bond tax, making a grand total of 35 cents cut from school taxes.

Monday night, Albany City Council adopted a budget which included a five-cent decrease in taxes with a seven-cent reduction in the general fund. (See separate story.)

The report of the Board of Education meeting will be carried next week.

Fire Plug

If you are aware of an ALBANY fire truck in your neighborhood, it may not be a fire but members of the department making their safety survey, which is part of the department's program of education.

The Fire Safety Survey program is a public service operation of the Fire Department in which in-service companies of the fire fighting force inspect and survey structures and areas within their jurisdiction.

This program has a dual purpose: First to detect and correct the fire hazard common to occupancies, second, to enable fire companies to make pre-fire inspections of buildings and areas which enables them to better prepare for the problems encountered in fire suppression emergencies.

Capt. Richard McSheehy, in charge of Fire Prevention, points out that an added benefit resulting from this program is the opportunity to establish better public relations by making available to the citizens of Albany a public service beneficial to their safety.

Councilman Hein pointed out that city employees have received five per cent salary increases plus fringe benefits. Councilman Howell said that every time city books have been audited for 16 years, it has been suggested that the bookkeeping system be upgraded, which is finally happening.

Councilman Carlevaro noted the budget will be printed Aug. 14 and that he had heard the Board of Education may publish their budget.

Other Matters

In other matters Monday night, Council:

NOTICE that Photographer Jagoda has moved out of his studio on San Pablo Ave. In fact, there seems to be quite a few vacant business spots again lately.

ALBANY LOST another fine citizen Saturday in the death of Lloyd Hogan of 1558 Sonoma. Lloyd and his wife, Christine, were involved in many civic projects. Years after their daughter was out of school, they assisted Marin PTA and Girl Scouts. Lloyd always directed traffic at the Girl Scout Folk Dance Festival. They were active in Republican circles; in fact, Lloyd was often the lone man at meetings of Republican Women's club. Once he was wondering what he was going to do because women were told to bring their sewing. He died while serving as a volunteer for his favorite project—Tilden Park.

TOM CONROY, former Albany resident, has formed his own public relations firm in Walnut Creek.

JAKE FREY, longtime Albany resident who was recently honored at his 94th birthday party at Spenger's, is a patient at Albany hospital.

EMERSON AND RUTH STILL, our across-Evelyn neighbors at the Times, were honored Saturday, Aug. 3, on their 50th wedding anniversary. Dinner in Oakland was attended by their son, Steve, and three grandchildren, Mike, Tim and Stephanie. They have lived in Albany four years, managing the apartments at 1234 Solano. Tenants presented them with many gifts and cards.

Lynn Fletcher Writes
From South of the Border

Earlier this year Lynn Fletcher, an Albany High school student, journeyed to Salto, Uruguay, as an "American Abroad" AFS student. Since last January, Lynn has been living with a South American family and attending school under an American Field Service scholarship.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E.
Fletcher of 707 Gateview Avenue, report having received interesting letters, excerpts of which are found below.

May 12th: "It's really neat whenever you write to anyone else in the family because I get to translate the letters."

"I don't know what I'll do when they close the American Library here next month (have to cut down on spending). It seems such a shame because the old people come to see the movies and there are many students in there every hour of the day. Why don't you write a letter to my Congressman? I'd do it, but if I study I have little time enough to write you."

May 20th: "There's an outdoor market place here where everybody brings all kinds of old stuff and they close off the street so they can spread it all out and sell it—kinda like a flea market.
It's there every Sunday."

"I gave a singing performance in a talent show—and they told me I was good (I don't know).
Also recorded at the radio station, and they want to play a recording or have me sing on the radio."

May 24th: "Sorry I skipped over part of my family—thought I'd described them. 'Pap' is very tall, thin, and his nickname is 'Pachacho.' He works very hard and is very serious. The four sisters (Mami's the eldest, then Elsa, Rosalba, and Adela) are often together because the husbands are always working and gone."

"There are a whole bunch of economic problems. The small farmer pays as much as the large farmer and the agricultural people, who support the nation, are charged so much that no matter how much they produce, they only earn enough to live."

"My best wishes to everyone at AFS."

Not all letters from South America to the C. E. Fletcher family are from Lynn. An Ura-guayan "sister" has recently written that, "Lynn is a lovely, beautiful, charming sister. Everyone says that she looks like an angel."

On a more somber mood the letter continues, "I'm very sorry for Robert Kennedy's death. You know, South American people, especially the youth, admired him very much as we loved his brother, too."

It is expected that Lynn will return to Albany next January, which will provide her opportunity to graduate from Albany High

(Patti Hardisty)

—Larimer Photo.

Evening rites at Golden Wedding chapel in Reno July 27 united in marriage Patti Hardisty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hardisty of Black Springs, Nevada, and Michael Callaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Callaway of Rodeo.

The bride is the owner of Solano Style Shop in Albany.

Given in marriage by her father, she wore a pink knit A line dress with lace bell sleeves. Her shoulder length veil fell from a pink bow and she carried a cascade of pink carnations centered with an orchid.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Linda Hundley of San Pablo. The bridegroom's brother, Dennis Callaway, was best man.

A reception for 125 guests followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Hardisty wore a light blue dress and coat ensemble and the mother of the bridegroom wore a lime green voile dress with lace trim as they received guests.

Following a wedding trip to Nevada points of interest, the couple is at home at 1610 Michael Drive, Pinole.

He is a graduate of Harry Ellis High school and attended Contra Costa college and the University of Arizona in Tucson. He is employed at a service station in El Sobrante.

The bride, a graduate of El Cerrito High school, attended Contra Costa college and Don's Beauty school.

Mildenrad of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gerarty and daughter, Jane, of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Nielsen of Orinda, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Birch and Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. LITTLE LEAGUE

by Jim Scoggins

Albany's Major League Pirates scored a 6-5 victory over Castro Valley last Tuesday night in the opening game of District 45 Little League Tournament of Champions at Mt. Eden field in Hayward.

Sammy Scoggins pitched the victory for the Pirates, striking out 12 and walking 8 in a 6-hitter. Jim Allen drove in two runs with a double and a single and scored another on a passed ball to lead the Pirates' attack. The Pirates won the game with a two-run rally in the bottom of the fifth inning. Ron Jaramillo started it by drawing a walk, stole second base and scored on a double by Charlie Luty, who stole third and came home with the winning run on an error.

Castro Valley rallied in the top of the sixth, when Ray Camaro drove in two runs with a base rap that narrowed the Pirates' lead to 6-5, but Scoggins cut the rally short by striking out the side.

The Pirates returned to Mt. Eden field for a semi-final game Saturday morning and were defeated by San Lorenzo National by a score of 3-2.

The winning pitcher, Alan Brecht, struck out 13, walked two and allowed only two hits.

Ted Smith, the losing pitcher struck out 10, walked five and drove in the first run with a single after Charlie Luty had singled and took second on a pass ball. That was the extent of Pirate hitting.

The Pirates' other run was scored by Sammy Scoggins, who drew a base on balls, moved to second on a balk, to third on a passball and scored on a balk. The Pirates threatened in the bottom of the sixth. Ted Smith walked, Don Morishico reached first on an error and both runners advanced on a passball.

The next batter was retired and the game ended 3-2. This ended the season for Norm Jacobson and his Pirates and for the entire Albany Little League.
